

MONUMENT BANK
OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Additional Information Regarding Your Submission

- By making a submission you are agreeing that you would like Monument to review and evaluate your submission for a potential patent transaction.
- By submitting patents to Monument for review you are not agreeing to anything and are not bound to any terms – only to have Monument conduct a review for the purposes of evaluating the potential acquisition of your patents.
- You are welcome to include any information you like in your submission – although Monument recommends not initially placing a valuation on your submission.
- By reviewing your submission Monument is not agreeing to close or otherwise effectuate any transaction. All submissions are subject to negotiation of all relevant terms, agreement on those terms and execution of mutually acceptable transaction documents between you and Monument.
- By making a submission you and Monument both agree to take reasonable steps to keep your submission confidential.
